

Programme Regulations

In the regulations presented here, unless the context otherwise requires, ‘delegated authority’ refers to an individual or role holder, or in some cases a committee, who has been delegated the authority to make a decision within a specific circumstance. A schedule of the various relevant delegations is maintained by the Programme Committee responsible for the programme. Te Pūkenga aims to enable broad access for ākonga and is committed to providing barrier-free access and participation for Māori, Pacific, Disabled, and other equity groups.

Whakatapoko | Admission

General admission	To be admitted to this programme applicants must meet the following requirements: Open Entry if the delegated authority at the campus/site is satisfied that the applicant has the capability to complete the requirements of the programme.
Additional requirements	In addition to meeting the requirements for admission all applicants must complete a health declaration and declaration of any criminal conviction to ensure fitness to practice prior to acceptance into the programme. *Convictions of any offence may not necessarily exclude applicants from enrolment. Any decision is made on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the delegate authority.
English language requirements	All applicants (international and domestic) for whom English or te reo Māori is not a first language need to provide evidence that they have the necessary English language proficiency required for the programme. International applicants are required to have an IELTS score of 5 (general or academic) with no individual band lower than 5 from one test taken in the preceding two years, or an equivalent described in NZQA Rules .

Selection Processes

Limits on enrolment may be applied due to health and safety reasons and/or availability of work experience placements. Should limits be placed on enrolment, the following selection criteria will apply:

- Where the number of applications for a programme exceeds the number of available places, ākonga are offered the opportunity to be placed on a waitlist.
- Programme selection prioritisation is the order in which the applications are received.
