CLUB OF SOUTH AUCKLAND

2024 Study Award

An award of up to $5,000 is offered to a woman aged 25 to 45 to further her career goals.

Purpose: To assist in financing a student to undertake a course of study towards a professional or vocational qualification of any sort. The award is intended to primarily target a woman who is hoping to begin or to complete a course of study which she was unable to undertake immediately after leaving school.

Eligibility Criteria: Applicants must:

- ❖ be a female between the ages of 25 to 45 who is a New Zealand resident
- ❖ live in the region bounded by the Tamaki Estuary in the north and around Pokeno in the south, excluding East Manukau, and be able to provide proof of residence upon request.
- ❖ show evidence of either application for or enrolment in a course to be studied in 2024.

Other details about the Award:

- ❖ Applicants will be evaluated on effort and determination to complete their objective, the value of the course to themselves and to the community, and their need for financial assistance.
- ❖ The shortlisted applicants must be available for an on-line interview with the selection committee in the week of September 16-20 2024
- ❖ The Award presentation will be made at the Zonta South Auckland Awards Evening on Wednesday, 2 October 2024
- ❖ The successful applicant will be expected to update Zonta South Auckland at the 2025 Awards Evening with her progress during the year.

Application:

Application must be complete and include all required information – incomplete applications may not be considered. Please double check that you have included all information before submission.

Submission:

Please submit your application via email to: southauckland@zonta.org.nz
